Professional Activities

Consultant to OPIC (see below) on major international projects and advisor to the legal, finance, and insurance departments of the Agency.

Overseas Private Investment Corporation ("OPIC"), Washington D.C.: March 1995-March 2004--Associate General Counsel the last 4 years, Senior Commercial Counsel the first 5

OPIC is a profit making agency of the United States of America. Its dual mission is (1) to make limited recourse loans for the benefit of U.S. businesses expanding into under-developed countries, and (2) to issue political risk insurance to insure U.S. equity investors and lenders against the risks of inconvertibility of funds, expropriation, and political violence. OPIC operates in approximately 150 developing countries. OPIC loan and insurance transactions range from less than one million to three hundred million dollars. My nine year career with OPIC was challenging and rewarding and took me to many of the non-vacation destinations of the world.

Adjunct Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.: 2003-2004

I co-taught International Project Finance in the LL.M program, a one year program designed especially for foreign lawyers and law graduates seeking to enhance their knowledge of common law jurisprudence in both theoretical and practical applications and approaches to the issues that arise in international project finance transactions.

Adjunct Professor of Business Administration, University of Vermont School of Business Administration. I taught International Project Finance during the 2004 fall semester. Although similar to the course I previously taught at the Georgetown University Law Center, the students were entirely different, requiring a major redirection of the material to emphasize the business choices and decisions available and required rather than the legal structure of project finance transactions.

Senior Adviser to the Archivist of the United States, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, D.C.: 1993-1994

In a one year position at the National Archives during the interregnum between resignation of the then Archivist of the United States at the beginning of the Clinton Administration and appointment of a new Archivist by the President, I provided strategic and tactical counsel and advice to the Acting Archivist of the United States on management, personnel, budget, legal, congressional, and organizational issues.

Private Practice of Law, San Francisco, CA: 1958-1993

In a large law firm private practice before accompanying my wife to Washington, my work involved the negotiation and documentation of widely varied, complex, highly technical business transactions. My practice was a broad general business transactional practice that provided me with extensive experience and expertise in real estate and development, corporate, commercial, and partnership law; corporate structuring, restructuring, and governance; commercial code and real estate secured lending; and real estate workouts. I have represented investors, lenders, and issuers in corporate organization and financial transactions; owners, lenders, and borrowers in secured and unsecured loan and workout transactions; purchasers and sellers of corporate interests; management and boards of directors; real estate owners and developers; and investment limited partnerships and their sponsors.

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I had been very active in the merger process between the RPC and MPO, and I want to continue to help make sure that the merged organization continues to run smoothly. During the past two years, the RPC has been developing the ECOS plan (which includes the regional plan and the transportation plan). We are in the final process for adopting the plan, and I want to next focus on helping to implement the plan. As the vice chair of the RPC, I have taken a leadership role in many different areas, including serving as chair of the annual workplan committee and serving on its executive committee and finance committee. I want to continue serving in this leadership capacity to make sure that Burlington's interests are properly represented.

Have you served as a Burlington City Commissioner/Board Member in the past? Yes

If the answer is yes, please list any and all appointments and dates you served.

In addition to what is listed above, I served as President Channel 17 - Town Meeting TV.
I also served on various City Council committees, including Ordinance Committee (chair), Charter Change Committee (chair), TEUC (chair), License and Finance Board.
I also served on the steering committee of the Ward 6 NPA.

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I have been on the Marketplace Commission for three years now. I have enjoyed my time, but I have more to do and more to prove. With the new administration, things are finally happening. Progress is happening. It's an exciting time. Plus, with the expanded B.I.D on the horizon, I want to be involved in this process and see it through. The expanded B.I.D has the potential to be amazing for the City, but it must be handled and Managed in the right way. I believe my experience over the past 3 will help in this endeavor. Please consider giving me that chance.

Hi Lori,

Thank you for calling me back this afternoon! I was not able to drop off my application today since when I received your call I was out with my toddler and did not have it with me. However, I have attached my application (3 pages) to this email.

Would you like me to drop off a hard copy of this application as well?

Finally, could you please send me a list of City Council members?

Thanks again for your help!

Application for Conservation Board

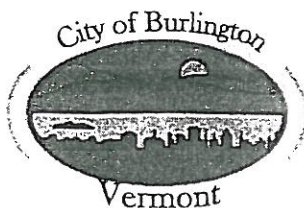

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I value the strong sense of community here, and the citizen-led commitment to making Burlington a model city when it comes to sustainable growth. I would hope as a member of the Board to utilize my expertise in environmental law and marine biology to contribute meaningfully to the Board's efforts. I would seek to place a continued emphasis on sustainable growth that includes environmental protection and conservation as a significant element of all planning and development.

Please use this area to make any further comments regarding your candidacy, especially in regard to your qualification for this position.

My work experience has prepared me well to be a member of the Conservation Board. For instance, from September 2007 to November 2010 I was the NEPA Campaign Director for the Partnership Project, comprised of a coalition of leading public interest organizations. There I advocated against proposed congressional rollbacks of key requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA). I also worked to promote proactive proposals to strengthen NEPA implementation, and worked through the budget and appropriations process to ensure adequate staff and resources are available at federal agencies to meet NEPA responsibilities. As NEPA Campaign Director, I also had an opportunity to work on various substantive issues, ranging from public land management, to ocean conservation, to transportation.

Prior to being the NEPA Campaign Director, I worked on marine issues at the Marine Conservation Biology Institute and was part of the effort to successfully preserve the largest marine conservation area worldwide, nearly 140,000 square miles of ocean area, in Hawaii. Currently, I am both a stay-at-home to our toddler, and a part time instructor and consultant for Kaplan University and teach both undergraduate and graduate environmental policy courses for the Legal Studies Department. All of these experiences would aid me in successfully performing the duties required of a Board member.

VOLUNTEER & COMMUNITY: YESTERMORROW 2013
Instructor for: Inspired Design. This course explored the ways in which inspired structure has the potential to create a synergy with its surrounding environment. The built environment influences our individual behavior and cognitive processes through a series of exercises the students learned how to understand our their own cognitive processes through metaphor and how to translate these metaphors into built form. This process leads the students through how to observe their own inspiration and how it can evolve into a conceptual design that has the potential impact our own behavior in a positive manner.

Instructor for: 2012, 2013
 Taught the design portion of the Natural Design/Build class. This course provides students with a comprehensive exploration of all facets of creating an energy efficient, climate-specific natural structure. In this two-week intensive, we engage the students in studio sessions, hands-on construction experience, lectures, slide shows, and site tours.

MONTPELIER PLANNING COMMISSION '09-'10
Volunteer for: Review of City's new 'sustainable' master plan. Unlike typical Master Plans which primarily focuses on land use and economic development, this new approach further addressed human needs. This was done by segmenting the plan into 5 broad categories: Natural Environment, Built Environment and Infrastructure, Economics and Livelihoods, Governance, and Social and Human Development. The community of Montpelier joined these committee categories to answer the question; what will Montpelier be like in 100 years if we focus on being a sustainable city and what short-term goals can we set now to make it easier to get there?

WOMEN CAN DO CONFERENCE INSTRUCTOR fall '08
Teacher for: Full day hands-on workshop for high school girls interested in learning about trades and technology. With Ace Mcarleton of New Frameworks we taught the fundamentals of natural building and straw bale construction. Lead a hands-on workshop to have the women work with the straw and get familiar with what it is like to build with it.

PUBLICATION: ARCHITECTURAL RESEARCH CENTERS CONSORTIUM spring '07
Writer and speaker for: ARRC Annual Conference at the University of Oregon
What's on your mind, What's in your heart? An exploration of the perceived environment

This paper reevaluates the current practices and valuation processes for sustainable design by examining the definition in relation to the metaphor of a building as person. This metaphor allows the reader to find a deeper meaning of the word behind its surface expression. The underlying goal is to explore a more humane approach when dealing with sustainability that goes beyond the surface of our self and our profession but rather a new approach that has the ability to touch our core and become a multidisciplinary practice.

- 2004 Bachelor of Arts - Hunter College, City University of New York
Major: Philosophy

Professional Experience

- April 2011 - Present Town Administrator
Hinesburg, Vermont
- I assemble, manage, and develop a $3 million dollar general fund budget and $1.5 million water/wastewater budget. I directly supervise fifteen (15) full-time employees and oversee operations in the highway, water/wastewater, general government, and police department(s). I am immediately responsible for all personnel, financial, legal, engineering, and other organizational needs of the municipality. Hinesburg is a rapidly growing suburban/rural community of 4,600 and is part of the greater Burlington metropolitan area.
- Sept 2007 - April 2011 Assistant Town Manager
Middlebury, Vermont
- I managed and developed $12 million spread over four (4) budgets plus a $16million locally financed bridge project. I was the personnel manager for 54 full-time employees and more than 20 part-time employees. I developed and managed three consecutive budgets without a property tax rate increase. I negotiated the FY2010-12 Union Contract. I worked closely on projects in all departments and with numerous area businesses, commissions, and agencies. Middlebury is a college town of 8,500.
- June 2006 - August 2007 Local Government Management Internship
Barre, Vermont
- I assisted with the development of the FY08 budget, reviewed contracts, RFPs, and bid packages for public works projects while engaged in this one-year, full-time internship. Barretown has a population of 8,000, a municipal budget of $6 million, and 51 full-time employees. I worked full-time while finishing my graduate degree.
- Sept 2005 - June 2006 Classification & Compensation Analyst
New York State Department of Civil Service, Albany, New York
- I independently analyzed job classification requests and out-of-title work grievances for various New York State agencies and made recommendations via detailed written reports. I worked full-time while in graduate school.
- August 2003 - Jan 2004 Technical Researcher II & Administrative Assistant
New York Public Library - Wilson Project & Photographic Services, New York, New York
- I manipulated and maintained a complex database to ensure timely delivery of highly sensitive library material; I was the lead researcher and archivist in the Wilson Project. I worked full-time while enrolled in college.
- Jan 2001 - Dec 2002 AmeriCorps: Corps Member
AmeriCorps National Civilian Community Corps (NCCC), Northeast Region, USA
- I received the Education Award, Presidential Award, and Team Leader Award for completing over 2,000 hours of service. I was the Assistant Team Leader and Corps Ambassador Representative.

I have no formal experience in fence viewing, but I have been known to be a good fence sitter and I even put up my own four-foot picket fence and six-foot stockade fence at our previous house on Ward Street. I even tried to take up fencing once, but it ended up being nothing more than wielding some very thin sticks in my driveway with my kids.

To be fair and just in my fence viewing and in any decision I render. I also will strive to uphold the legacy of those who have come before me in this time-honored and valued role. And, as the city begins to re-integrate livestock into our backyards, and neighborhoods I do foresee a time when fence viewing will take on a renewed role as the arbiter of the age-old question, "Why did the chicken cross the road – and whose chicken is it, and how is they got out of their fence?" These are not insignificant questions in the 21st century.

Training or Experience Related to the Commission or Board Post for Which you are Applying:

I have worked in the library profession since 1994 and completed graduate studies in the field in 1999. My current position, as Assistant to the Dean of Libraries for External Relations at UVM, demands high-level work in all areas of library operations, most notably fundraising, assessment, outreach, and planning. I believe these skills will be particularly valuable to the City of Burlington and the Library Commission in the coming years, as changes in leadership provide the opportunity to take a fresh look at the role of the library in the community and to assess how its operational models can best serve library users. I have also held relevant positions at the St. Johnsbury Archives Collaborative (which included municipal, public library, school, and museum partners), the Shelburne Museum, the WGBH Educational Foundation and a number of other institutions. My extensive work with non-profits and other community organizations has provided me with a rich understanding of board/commission processes and functions.

Current Occupation: ASST. TO DEAN OF LIBRARIES, UVM

Education (list most recent first):

School	Location	Year/Degree
Simmons College	BOSTON, MA	1999 / Master of Science in Library + Information Science
Bennington College	BENNINGTON, VT	1991 / B.A. (dance)
Burlington High School	BURLINGTON, VT	1987 / High School Graduate

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I'm particularly interested in helping with efforts to revitalize the library's fundraising, from building/expanding a major donor program to developing fundraising events that engage the broader community. My experience with library assessment and planning would be a relevant asset in the creation of accountable library services and collections, in the best interests of Burlington residents and library users. I also bring extensive experience in library marketing and community outreach and would like to offer these skills in service of the library's goals of increased visibility and outreach to currently underserved communities.

Have you served as a Burlington City Commissioner/Board Member in the past? _____
If the answer is yes, please list any and all appointments and dates you served.

While I haven't served on a City Commission, I have been on a number of community volunteer boards in the past, including Vermont Community Access Media (2010-2012), Vermont Access to Reproductive Freedom (Co-founder & Chair, 2001-2007; 2010-2012), the Vermont Library Association (various positions held, 2005-2009), Cradle to Grave Arts (2011-present), and Grace Roots Art and Community Education (1999-2002). I am the incoming Chair of VLA's Government Relations committee.

Do you foresee any potential conflicts of interest if you were appointed to the position for which you are applying? _____ If so, please explain:

My mother, Lorraine Colburn, worked as a staff member at the Fletcher Free Library for over 25 years, retiring in 2010. I have waited until her retirement to offer my service to the library commission, to avoid any potential conflict of interest. In 2002 I performed a brief (two day) assessment of the library's historic records, funded by the Vt. Historical Records Advisory Board. While I don't believe either of these things constitutes a conflict of interest, I draw your attention to them in the interest of transparency.

Selene Colburn

Assistant to Dean of Libraries for External Relations, University of Vermont (UVM) Libraries

Highlights of Professional Accomplishments

Development & Fundraising

At UVM, I've served as liaison to the Foundation/Development unit, with significant responsibilities for helping to foster the Libraries' major gifts program. To that end I've met with major donors, created project briefings for gift officers, and authored copy for case statements, proposals, annual appeals, donor communications, and grant/foundation proposals. Working with the Dean of Libraries, I've been largely responsible for articulating and proposing capital campaign goals. As a founder, board member, and active volunteer with Vt. Access to Reproductive Freedom, I have helped to ensure funding for this grant-making non-profit for the past decade, gaining significant experience in annual giving, and in event and online fundraising.

Marketing and communications

At UVM, I oversaw the Libraries' first marketing and communications plan resulting in branding in the forms of a logo, a tagline, publication templates, and consistent signage in library spaces. I co-created an ongoing user-centered marketing campaign, engaging over 200 student models in Libraries' outreach. I was responsible for establishing social media outlets for the Libraries. Working with colleagues in University Communications and the Libraries, I crafted and implemented communications plans for over 30 major projects and/or events of the Libraries. As Project Archivist for the St. Johnsbury Archives Collaborative, I designed and implemented strategies to engage the local community in cultural heritage preservation, resulting in unique partnerships with underserved populations that included seniors, incarcerated students, municipal planners, and amateur historians/re-enactors.

Assessment and Planning

I implemented the Bailey/Howe Library's 2005, 2009, and 2013 library user surveys, resulting in detailed feedback from over 2,500 library users. I've also been responsible for additional assessments (such as focus groups on a variety of topics, usability testing of library resources, and local surveys) and have trained extensively in library assessment techniques. I have taken a leadership role in Libraries' facilities planning at UVM, most recently coordinating a recent study for a major Library and Learning Commons renovation and providing estimates for the construction of an off-site storage addition. Both at UVM and beyond, I have rich experience with strategic planning practices.

Service

I have been a leader in service activities in the library profession, and the community at-large. I have served on over 20 committees or working groups of the UVM Libraries, on over 10 University committees, and on eight professional or discipline-related committees requiring substantive contributions. I'm also committed to a high level of personal service that feeds my strengths in communications and fundraising back into the community, while enriching my skills in these areas.

Notable contributions include serving as:

- An active member of the UVM Libraries' Dean's Advisory Council
- An elected Faculty Senator at UVM
- An elected member of the Faculty Senate's Curricular Affairs Committee
- President of the Vermont Library Association's (VLA) College and Special Libraries Section
- Co-founder and chair of VLA's Advocacy Committee
- A member of New England Archivists' and New England Library Association's conference committees.
- The incoming Chair of VLA's Government Relations Committee.
- A co-founder and Chair of Vermont Access to Reproductive Freedom
- An elected board member at Vermont Community Access Media and an active participant in the organization's community needs assessment and strategic planning processes.
- An elected member of the Progressive Party's Coordinating Committee.

Research

As a library faculty member at UVM, my research has focused on the use of social media and other online marketing tools in libraries. My findings have been presented in peer-reviewed publications and at national conferences.

Training or Experience Related to the Commission or Board Post for Which you are Applying:

I have ten years' experience in Vermont and Portland, Oregon working directly with state and local government representatives, community organizations and private sector clients in comprehensive urban and regional planning and policy, project management, public outreach and engagement, plan implementation and grant writing.

My areas of expertise include community and economic development, land use, bike/pedestrian transportation, and water quality policy, as well as development review and plan implementation through zoning, development codes and design guidelines.

I also have a Master of Urban and Regional Planning (2002) from Portland State University focusing on Community and Economic Development and lived in Portland for 13 years.

Current Occupation: Regional Planner, Northwest Regional Planning Commission

Education (list most recent first):

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I hope to serve the city and planning commission with my knowledge of urban planning gained from work and life experiences both in Vermont and in other thriving and vibrant places. I am excited about the connections between health, the built environment and economic vitality. I also hope to engage in neighborhood and corridor planning that will support the downtown, help the city to grow responsibly and address livability issues. Bike and pedestrian planning are also priorities for me.

Application for Planning Commission

Training or Experience Related to the Commission or Board Post:

I have 8 years of experience in the financial services profession. In my current role as a Banker, I structure lending, including individual mortgage financing. I have a solid understanding of federal lending guidelines that shape the lending environment. The access to financing by individuals and business entities shapes the type of development that we see in Burlington. I believe that this knowledge will be a helpful addition to the Planning Commission.

I am a board member of Preservation Burlington and have led the Down Town Historic Walking Tours as a guide. I have strong knowledge of the history of Burlington and believe that the historical character of Burlington is one of its greatest assets.

I am a Ward 2 NPA Steering Committee member and meet regularly with residents of Ward 2 at monthly NPA meetings.

Current Occupation: Banker at Merrill Lynch

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/ Board Member.

Most importantly, I would like to be a representative for the residents of Ward 2 and promote involvement by residents in the city planning process. Ward 2 is currently not represented on the Planning Commission. I would like to give the residents of Ward 2 a voice on the commission. I would work to improve the planning and zoning process to make it easier for residents to invest in improvements to their properties. I would like to encourage historic preservation and end demolition by neglect in our historic neighborhoods. Parts of Ward 2 have very low rates of owner-occupied housing; I'd work to encourage owner-occupied housing in Burlington. I would like to encourage new high quality affordable housing to be built for students. I live down town and enjoy the easy walk-able lifestyle – I'd like to see more people both living and working in downtown Burlington.

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

After have spent the last 2 years on the Planning Commission helping to develop Plan BTV, now that it is in the final adoption process, I want to help implement the Plan. In particular, there are likely to be a number of significant zoning changes that will need to happen as a result of the Plan and I want to help work on those changes. I also want to help make sure that Burlington's land use policies keep Burlington one of the most vibrant small cities in the country.

Have you served as a Burlington City Commissioner/Board Member in the past? Yes

If the answer is yes, please list any and all appointments and dates you served.

In addition to what is listed above, I served as President Channel 17 - Town Meeting TV.
I also served on various City Council committees, including Ordinance Committee (chair), Charter Change Committee (chair), TEUC (chair), License and Finance Board.
I also served on the steering committee of the Ward 6 NPA.

I believe Public Works Commission decisions (and Department operations) should be guided by the City's long term goals whenever practical. DPW is uniquely positioned to help Burlington address major challenges (e.g., lake pollution, climate change) through routine operations, such as integrating stormwater into street and sidewalk amenities or providing safe and accessible bike storage. These are the types of opportunities I will support at every opportunity.

Consultant to OPIC (see below) on major international projects and advisor to the legal, finance, and insurance departments of the Agency.

Overseas Private Investment Corporation ("OPIC"), Washington D.C.: March 1995-March 2004--Associate General Counsel the last 4 years, Senior Commercial Counsel the first 5

OPIC is a profit making agency of the United States of America. Its dual mission is (1) to make limited recourse loans for the benefit of U.S. businesses expanding into under-developed countries, and (2) to issue political risk insurance to insure U.S. equity investors and lenders against the risks of inconvertibility of funds, expropriation, and political violence. OPIC operates in approximately 150 developing countries. OPIC loan and insurance transactions range from less than one million to three hundred million dollars. My nine year career with OPIC was challenging and rewarding and took me to many of the non-vacation destinations of the world.

Adjunct Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.: 2003-2004

I co-taught International Project Finance in the LL.M program, a one year program designed especially for foreign lawyers and law graduates seeking to enhance their knowledge of common law jurisprudence in both theoretical and practical applications and approaches to the issues that arise in international project finance transactions.

Adjunct Professor of Business Administration, University of Vermont School of Business Administration. I taught International Project Finance during the 2004 fall semester. Although similar to the course I previously taught at the Georgetown University Law Center, the students were entirely different, requiring a major redirection of the material to emphasize the business choices and decisions available and required rather than the legal structure of project finance transactions.

Senior Adviser to the Archivist of the United States, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, D.C.: 1993-1994

In a one year position at the National Archives during the interregnum between resignation of the then Archivist of the United States at the beginning of the Clinton Administration and appointment of a new Archivist by the President, I provided strategic and tactical counsel and advice to the Acting Archivist of the United States on management, personnel, budget, legal, congressional, and organizational issues.

Private Practice of Law, San Francisco, CA: 1958-1993

In a large law firm private practice before accompanying my wife to Washington, my work involved the negotiation and documentation of widely varied, complex, highly technical business transactions. My practice was a broad general business transactional practice that provided me with extensive experience and expertise in real estate and development, corporate, commercial, and partnership law; corporate structuring, restructuring, and governance; commercial code and real estate secured lending; and real estate workouts. I have represented investors, lenders, and issuers in corporate organization and financial transactions; owners, lenders, and borrowers in secured and unsecured loan and workout transactions; purchasers and sellers of corporate interests; management and boards of directors; real estate owners and developers; and investment limited partnerships and their sponsors.

Please use this area to make any further comments regarding your candidacy, especially in regard to your qualification for this position. You may attach additional sheets if necessary.

I would like to complete a full term having seen and experienced the hard work at hand and the importance of commitment to the job. Willing to learn procedures. Have an understanding of the problems. Enjoy working with board members and all Ward poll workers at each election. Will go where ever the help is needed.

In order to be appointed to a Board or Commission post you must be nominated by a member of the City Council. A list of members is available upon request.
