RECEIVED

Attention: Lori, Honorable Board members

Lee recently discovered that he is paying a "Non-Residential" Education Tax. Lee has lived at the residence full-time as his Homestead for the past 7 years. He would like an abatement for the additional tax and the interest and fees that have accrued due to this increased tax bracket.

Lee would also like his situation to be taken into special consideration. He did not realize that he could file the Property Tax Adjustment form through the VT Dept of Taxes for these past 7 years. He just filed today (08/12/13) for the first time since owning the property, but rightfully believes that he is eligible and would have been eligible these past 7 years for a significant reduction. He was told by the State that he cannot file for previous years' consideration.

Given the current status, Lee will never be able to ever catch up on his payments. He only receives $6,090 in Social Security Benefits (after having Child Support taken out – see attached) and this is the only source of income for him and his wife. He wishes to request that the past interest and fees be forgiven and for a hold to be placed on the current interest and fees. If this is granted, then for the next 28 months he can make payments of $150 per month and successfully pay off what is owed for the past missed filings and get caught up to date.

Lee wishes to be present when his case is being considered.

Respectfully,

Lee Melanson
