

Eleven

FIRE PROTECTION AND PREVENTION--
Smoke detectors

That Chapter 13, Fire Protection and Prevention, of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Burlington be and hereby is amended by amending Sec. 13-5 thereof to read as follows::

Sec. 13-5. - Smoke detectors.

(a) Each and every dwelling, lodging or rooming house, dwelling unit or rooming unit used for occupancy, other than for a single-family owner occupied dwelling, shall meet the following requirements for smoke detectors/alarms.

(1) to (5) As written.

(6) All newly installed smoke alarms shall be the photoelectric-only type

(b) ~~All other dwellings, rooming houses, dwelling units or rooming units not covered by subsection (a)~~ Single family owner occupied dwellings shall comply with the smoke alarm provisions of ~~have a smoke detector/alarm installed in compliance to the Vermont Fire and Building Safety Code currently in effect.~~ ~~Such smoke detectors/alarms shall be approved or listed by a nationally recognized testing or listing agency for the purposes for which they are intended.~~

(c) As written.

(d) As written.

* Material stricken out deleted.

 Material underlined added.